

NMHU Career Peer Advisors presents:

Career Seminars

Free to NMHU Students: No Pre-Registration required

Transitioning from College Student to Professional (by Serina Allingham)

You're graduating college and just landed that job, now what? Life is different after college, come learn about how to change your thinking/behavior to ensure success in your career.

- Wednesday, November 3, 3-4pm, Sininger Hall 123, ITV: Raton3, Rio110, Farm202, SFII

Effective Résumé Writing 101 (by Lisa Ahmed)

Writing an effective resume is hard work, but worth the effort. Come learn the basics of résumé writing including content, design, and how to customize it to be successful on today's competitive job market.

- Tuesday, November 9, 2-3 pm, Sininger Hall 130A, ITV: TBA

Starting a Successful Job Search: Get that Gig (by Chris Burns)

The job market is tough and competitive. Learn about effective strategies and resources available to help you land that dream job.

- Wednesday, November 10, 12-1pm, Sininger Hall 123, ITV: TBA

Employment Interview Strategies: Sealing the Deal (by Serina Allingham)

Nervous about an interview? Scared of speaking in front of others? Then this workshop is for you. Come learn interviewing strategies that will ensure a successful interview.

- Thursday, November 11, 3-4pm, Sininger Hall 123, ITV: Raton3, Rio203, Farm202
- Tuesday, November 16, 12-1pm, Sininger Hall 129, ITV: Raton3, Farm213, SFII

HACU National Internship Program: Learning by Experience... and get paid

Chris Burns, an MBA student and 2 term intern as a Budget Analyst and EEO Specialist, will share his experiences and valuable tips on how to apply for numerous paid internships with government and industry — all with one application.

- Tuesday, November 30, 12 –1pm, Hilton Science 271A, ITV: TBA

For more info:

Office of Career Services, Felix Martinez Bldg., Room 230
phone: 454-3048, email: careerservices@nmhu.edu